Cost of Attendance

The Office of Financial Aid utilizes these budgets to determine how much financial aid will be offered. Total financial aid offered from all sources cannot exceed the total cost of attendance. Students who have unusual circumstances are encouraged to contact the Office of Financial Aid.

The cost of attendance is estimated and based on full-time enrollment. The following budget is based on the 2016–2017 cost, and is subject to change based on approved increases (i.e. tuition, room and board)

| | On-Campus | With Parents / Relative | Off-Campus |

Direct Costs:

Direct costs are charges that must be paid directly to the college. Students are responsible for direct costs upon registration. Your direct costs are deferred based on the amount of financial aid you have accepted. If you do not have sufficient funds to cover all the direct costs, you will need to contact Student Accounts at 904-470-8246/ 904-470-8247

Indirect Costs:

Indirect costs are estimated expenses that may be incurred by the student. These expenses are not paid to the college. Indirect costs will vary based on several factors, such as individual spending habits and personal preferences.
