

SUMMER II ONLINE COURSE

Border and Coastal Security (DSC 2242)

This is part of the Emergency Management Concentration

DATE/TIME:

June 18, 2018 – July 19, 2018

PRE-REQUISITE:

Intro to Criminal Justice (CCJ 2220)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is a study of the federal, state and local organizations involved in border and coastal security, associated homeland security issues, the various policy and operational strategies used for border and coastal access and security, and contemporary border and coastal security concerns. Topics also include immigration and non-U.S. approaches to border and coastal security.